B. HORN, ELBA—The Exposition, itself, is air conditioned throughout, so that every day will be a sunny spring day within the confines of this great world's fair.

Finishing touches are now being put on for the opening day when President Roosevelt will personally open the gates of the show by a round-the-world, radio-hoop-up, gas every time they went over the peak of a line and dropped over the voice for the decent. Result: Gordon spent some very uncomfortable moments which seemed like hours. However, taking the trip as a whole, Gordon says they had an enjoyable sightseeing tour.

HOME-COMING—At a recent meeting of the Elba Chamber of Commerce, that body voted to invite Tuesday. The gala party was composed of Martha Francis and Mary Oweil Dowling, Robert Lasserre, Ida Isabel, Maragon and Double Whitman. After arriving at their destination, New Brockton, they called on friends in the business section, where they were entertained royally, their old friend, Wade Sawyer, being especially glad to see them. From there they traipsed about a mile into the country to the home of the Dowling children's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Harper, overlooking on blackberry huckleberry or any other kind of berries on their way. They spent a pleasant afternoon at the Harper home. Mrs. J. D. Whitman brought home a automobile that evening and the Dowling children remained for longer visit with their grandparents. It was the first young Whitman child's first railroad ride and, needless to say, all members of the party got a big kick out of it. Before starting, Ida Isabel suggested that it might be wise to put her dog collar and chain on Buddy in order to better hold him in check.

MUCH IMPROVED—His many friends are joyous to know that John Garrett, Jr., has improved from his previous condition of illness enough to be able to get up in a cots bed at a hospital in Montgomery, where he underwent an operation for tumor. A blood clot caused a severe attack of the lungs and it was necessary to give him a blood transfusion. His mother is still at his bedside, but his father says he hopes to be able to go home in a few days. John has the latter part of this week. John Garrett is an Elba product of whom the community is proud, as he has made good in a big way and possesses a personality that attracts friends wherever he goes.

ALL HET UP—My good friend, "Pete" Talbot, is all het up over the article he reports reading in a recent issue of the Headland Vinegrass Farmer. According to Mr. Talbot's version of the article, Editor Mitchell branded Probate Judge J. A. Carney and about 5,000 other citizens who cast their ballots for James E. Folsom for Congress in the Third District as radicals. I recently had the pleasure of inspecting Editor Mitchell's postmarked printing plant and the Vinegrass Farmer plant. Proud, however, Editor-Probate Judge Mitchell seems to be unable to get down to the ground roots when it comes to writing articles expressing the wants and needs of his agricultural subscribers and constituents.

CAR SICK—Gordon, Corner gives an interesting account of his experiences in riding over the mountains and valleys up around Birmingham last Sunday. He says that he and his wife took a trip with Mrs. Comer's brother, Benjamin Nolin, and his wife, in Mr. Nolin's new car, which had only 1,000 miles registered on the speedometer. They went up into the mountains west of Clinton and on up, in the vicinity of Birmingham, where they saw many interesting sights. In some way, it seems that Mr. Nolin had discovered that Gordon, although he has sailed the seven seas as a sailor in Uncle Sam's Navy, has never been able to overcome that deadly enemy feeling at the pit of the stomach when he commences a rapid descent. They were traveling over hard roads that were continually going up one hill and down another, and Gordon said his brother-in-law delighted in stepping on the gas every time they went over the peak of a line and dropped over the voice for the decent. Result: Gordon spent some very uncomfortable moments which seemed like hours. However, taking the trip as a whole, Gordon says they had an enjoyable sightseeing tour.

RATHER SLOW—Work on the Elba levee is progressing rather slowly, but we are thankful even for anything we can get along that line. Mr. J. W. Cony probably expressed a considerable portion of Elba people's sentiment when he told some of the workers the following words in response to the statement that they were starting to finish the dam that runs past his house: "Yes, and it will be a dam long time before it is finished."

REVIVALS—June will be a month of revival meetings at Elba churches. A meeting is scheduled to start at the Church of Christ on Sunday, June 7, and another is to begin at the Methodist church on Sunday, June 14.

"MILKY WAY" OBITUARY—JORDAN

A groom of sadness was cast over the entire community last Saturday morning, May 16, about 4:30, when the death angel visited the home of J. F. Jordan (better known as Doc), and claimed for his own the spirit of the husband and father. He was born July 1874. On December 24, 1901, he was married to Miss Bamma Daugherty. To this union was born six children, the first of which died in infancy. Besides his companion, the following children survive him: Miss Doris Jordan of Enterprise, Mr. Esker Jordan, Miss Mittle On Jordan, at home, Miss Elvy Greene of Columbus, Ga., and little William Jordan, 10, who preceded him to the grave by six years and three months; one grandson, Cottonwood, Jim Jordan, Coffee Springs, and Elsie Jordan, Charlotte, N.C., who are all of New Hope, together with a host of other relatives and numerous friends.

He was well known throughout the community, having lived in a mile and a half of where he died for 31 years. He had a complete set of diseases consisting of a severe heart trouble for two years. He had been deprived of most of the privileges of life for four weeks, during which time he had been confined to his bed for all but two days. On Friday he was seemingly as well as he had been for months, and he had been around chickens, looking at the garden and talking over business affairs. He died almost instantly without even speaking.

Boyd Murphree has returned home from Gulfport, Miss., to spend the summer vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Murphree. He graduated from the high school of the Gulf Coast Military Academy. His parents attended the closing exercises.

Press Association's Friends Accepting Invitation To Go To Cuba On Low Cost Tour

CUBA—BOX HEAD, back page—There are a thousand and one details connected with a trip, and here are the answers to many of the very natural questions that will arise.

TIME AND PLACE—The trip starts from Montgomery on Sunday morning, June 14, at 7 o'clock, by special train over the A. C. L. Railway. The train will be all day coaches—but air-conditioned, so the trip will be very pleasant from that standpoint. Two diners will be attached, and Tampa will be reached at 5 that afternoon. The party will go in the train to Port Tampa and immediately go aboard and set sail.

TICKETS—The excursion secretary will have an office at the Whitley Hotel, Montgomery, all of Saturday, June 13, and on Friday, also, if necessary. Late comers will see him there and get their tickets. Those whose reservations get in earlier—June 5th, by all means—will have their tickets and reservations already made and ready for them. The earlier the reservation the better placed on the ship.

RESERVATIONS—All editors and members of their respective parties are asked to have their reservations in the hands of the excursion secretary on or before June 5th. Earlier than this, if possible, all funds will be deposited in the bank at Alexander City and if for any reason anyone cannot make the trip after paying for it, the money will be immediately refunded. There will be no waiting for refunds nor any rebate connected with it.

BAGGAGE—As reservations are received baggage forms for the Cuban and American customs, tags for baggage, etc., will be sent and the tickets will also be sent, if desired. It would be wise to get these done either Saturday before starting on the trip or on the train. They will be prepared and ready. The baggage will be carried on a baggage car and at Port Tampa transferred to the ship. Hereafter, it will take it to the steamer. At Havana it will be carried to the hotel and the better placed on the ship.

STOPS EN ROUTE—The train will stop at Port Tampa, where it will take it to the steamer. At Havana it will be carried to the hotel and the better placed on the ship.

CLOTHES—The climate of Cuba is about like the middle of May here all the year round. Summer clothes, of course, The men will be properly dressed for the evening in either a white suit or a blue coat and white trousers. The ladies will want to take sports clothes for the daytime wear and one dinner or semi-evening dress. There will be no occasion when full dress will be desired or necessary.

THE BOAT—The party will go on the "Cuba," an ocean-going liner. It follows the Florida coast line and is very seldom out of sight of land on the way. During the voyage, and the trip will probably be over so calm a sea that the party may be disappointed at the lack of motion. Seasickness is a possibility, naturally, but most probably there will be no member of the party who will be troubled with this. There is too much to see and enjoy on board for that.

ENTERTAINMENT—The entertainment starts on the boat. An orchestra will be aboard for dancing. The party will have a "Pensacola" night and other interesting events en route to Havana, and a similarly enjoyable trip coming back is also planned.

THE HOTEL—The Plaza Hotel, where the party will stop, is one of the best in the city. It is the newest but it is as comfortable as a modern hotel can be. Here the party will stop, two to a room with bath and meals will also be given to use their home in a dining room for their much happiness in their new home.

LANGUAGE—Spanish is the language, of course, but every store has a clerk who speaks English. All of the hotel employees speak English and one will have little difficulty on this score.

PURCHASES—We will be allowed to bring back, duty free, $100.00 worth of purchases. The visitor is tempted on every hand for French and English goods come to Cuba duty-free. As a result, Irish linen, French perfumes and powders, etc., cost in Cuba about a third the amount they do here in the United States. And Cuban cigars are also cheap, as well as other Cuban products. Real Panama hats will take the eyes of the men, also.

TRIPS—Every member of the party is advised to take plenty of his or her favorite cigarettes. In Cuba the Cuban cigarettes cost five cents a package, but American cigarettes cost five times what they do here. And a package of cigarettes makes a wonderful tip for service.

COST OF TRIP—Here's a trip that offers entertainment and advantages that the average tourist could not possibly get and, at about half what the trip would ordinarily cost. If you have not already done so, make your reservations today. See the editor of The Clipper or write F. W. Stanley, Greenville, or E. C. Hall, Alexander City, Ala.

MISS SARA CURTNEY of Double Springs visited home folks in Elba over the week-end.

MISS UNA MAE HOLLINBACH of Opp was a guest in the home of Judge and Mrs. J. J. Hughes, left Tuesday for Opp to visit relatives.

MISS MADGE PAGE of New Orleans is the guest of her sisters, Mesdames James English and J. M. Buchanan.

Rev. and Mrs. L. W. Tubb and son, Lloyd Bryan, came over from Columbia Friday to attend the funeral exercises.

Mrs. H. C. Johnson of Montgomery was the guest during the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Michel.

Mrs. Pauline Borders of Clayton was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bryan Tuesday.
